Bacon girls in the snow!

Come out of the Cold and Help Celebrate Historic Preservation Weekend!

Please join Mayor Sullivan as he proclaims Historic Preservation Weekend in Anchorage!

WHEN: February 11th at 5 p.m.

WHERE: Pioneer Schoolhouse at 437 East Third Avenue

WHAT: Ribbon cutting, reception, silent auction, and pot luck dinner

Hosted by the Anchorage Woman's Club, Alaska Association for Historic Preservation, Anchorage Garden Club, Anchorage Historic Preservation Commission, and University of Alaska Anchorage Special Archives, we invite the community to a weekend of historic preservation events. Learn about our past, while helping us plan for the future.

Weekend Events:

- 2/11 and 2/12—tours Oscar Anderson House Museum at 12, 1, 2, and 3 at 420 M Street, Downtown.
- 2/11—Pioneer Schoolhouse—Ribbon cutting, reception, silent auction, and pot luck at 5p.m.
- 2/12—UAA Archives Tour of Collection Vault and Historic Photograph Exhibit from 1:00-4:00 p.m. 3211 Providence Drive, UAA/APU Consortium Library (Third Floor).

All proceeds from the silent auction will support the Oscar Anderson House Museum operations, and the Pioneer Schoolhouse renovations.
