ANCHORAGE, Alaska -- The Anchorage Park Foundation continues its mission this weekend to fix up another park.

It was just last week when Johns Park in South Anchorage got a park fix-it. The park was in pretty good shape, but still needed some work.

Next on the list is Pamela Joy Lowry Memorial Park in the Sand Lake area.

When graded last fall, the park received a D, so they are looking for people to come out Saturday between noon and 5 p.m. to help give the park a quick makeover. Then at 5 p.m. they'll celebrate with a barbeque.

The park is located at 7961 Ascot Street.
