by Channel 2 News Staff
Monday, September 14, 2009

ANCHORAGE, Alaska -- On Monday morning the Anchorage Park Foundation, along with other volunteers, celebrated the new improvements to the Alicia Iden Nature Trail in Baxter Bog Park.

The improvements include an elevated overlook of the bog.

Park improvers also hope the area will serve as an outdoor classroom.

"We've had a lot of success with raising money and are able to put in this overlook and folks can use it to look at the bog and the beautiful ecosystem here," Tanya Iden, Alicia Iden's daughter, said Monday.

The trail is just over one mile long and is located in East Anchorage.
